A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR...

There are many variations of the story of Peter Pan written by J.M. Barrie. Of course, the one I grew up loving was the Disney cartoon. I wanted to be Wendy. I loved her gentle spirit and motherly demeanor. The magic of Peter Pan lies in the idea of a lasting childhood. You are going to a magical place where you don't have to grow up. You don't have to learn your lessons or become an adult with big responsibilities. You get to always be a child, playing games and having fun. And of course, who doesn't love a good story about fairies? But as we see in the story, we must grow up. We cannot live in our infancy, we cannot continue to play games. Growing up is hard, and not always welcome. So for me, it is important to cherish those moments when we were young. Allowing our children to be young when they are young. Not rushing to grow up, but enjoying our childhood and our imaginations.

I am so proud of this cast for bringing my vision to life. I hope you enjoy their unique characters as much as I have enjoyed watching them create them. Let's sit back and remember our own childhood for a moment and enjoy the show!

A BIG Thank You

- The Spartanburg Christian Academy Theatre Department would like to send a huge thank you to the Church at the Mill. Thank you for allowing us to raid your stores and borrow these amazing set pieces. They donated Wendy's Cave, tree stump, and large tree pieces. Our stage looks amazing because of your generosity.
- We'd also like to thank all the parents who have donated their time and energy to invest in this program. We cannot stand alone. We thank you for believing in us.
- Thank you to the faculty and teachers of SCA for also donating time to paint and move sets. Thank you for working the shows and supporting the arts here at SCA.
- To Rob McDonald for always supporting the arts and investing in this program. We have grown beyond my imagination these past six years!
- Thank you to Mrs. Heather Steward for her amazing vision of puppets and costumes. I cherish you!
- Christine DiNicola, your attention to detail and vision of our department blesses me every day. I don't know what I would do without you.
- To Rowan Byington for his artwork and designs for tickets, posters, and promotional art. As you leave for college doing what you love, we know you will do great things!
- Julie Arp, thank you for holding things together. You have this uncanny ability to know everything and know exactly how to help me. I love working with you.
- Traci Arledge for compiling the program and getting it ready to print. All the little details I would forget. Thank you for always being there and ready to serve.
- Barry Burnett for taking my ideas and bringing them to light. Literally. Without you, we'd be in the dark. Thank you for all you do for us.
- Jimmy Fender and the church staff for your flexibility and for allowing us to take over the stage for two weeks. We greatly appreciate it.
